Deadlines Approaching in Texas for SBA Working Capital Loans Due to Drought

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – Director Tanya N. Garfield of the U.S. Small Business Administration’s Disaster Field Operations Center-West today reminded Texas small nonfarm businesses of the deadline dates to apply for an SBA federal disaster loan for economic injury. These low-interest loans are to offset economic losses because of reduced revenues caused by drought in the following primary counties.

Declaration Number	Primary Counties	Neighboring Counties	Incident Type	Incident Date	Deadline
17308	Carson, Hansford, Hutchinson, Mitchell and Ochiltree	Armstrong, Borden, Coke, Donley, Fisher, Gray, Howard, Lipscomb, Moore, Nolan, Potter, Randall, Roberts, Scurry, Sherman and Sterling in Texas; Beaver and Texas in Oklahoma	Drought	Beginning Nov. 2, 2021	9/6/22
17309	Baylor, Hartley, Haskell, Lamar, Moore, Potter and Wichita	Archer, Armstrong, Carson, Clay, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Delta, Fannin, Foard, Franklin, Hansford, Hutchinson, Jones, King, Knox, Oldham, Randall, Red River, Shackelford, Sherman, Stonewall, Throckmorton, Wilbarger and Young in Texas; Quay and Union in New Mexico; Bryan, Choctaw, Cotton and Tillman in Oklahoma	Drought	Beginning Dec. 28, 2021	9/7/22

According to Garfield, small nonfarm businesses, small agricultural cooperatives, small businesses engaged in aquaculture and most private nonprofit organizations of any size may apply for Economic Injury Disaster Loans of up to $2 million to help meet working capital needs caused by the disasters. “Economic Injury Disaster Loans may be used to pay fixed debts, payroll, accounts payable and other bills that cannot be paid because of the disasters’ impact,” said Garfield.

“SBA eligibility covers both the economic impacts on businesses dependent on farmers and ranchers that have suffered agricultural production losses caused by the disasters and businesses directly impacted by the disasters. Economic injury assistance is available regardless of whether the applicant suffered any property damage,” Garfield added.

The interest rate is 2.83 percent for businesses and 1.875 percent for private nonprofit organizations with terms up to 30 years. Loan amounts and terms are set by SBA and are based on each applicant’s financial condition.

By law, SBA makes Economic Injury Disaster Loans available when the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture designates an agricultural disaster. The Secretary declared declaration TX 17308 on Jan. 6, 2022; and declaration TX 17309 on Jan. 7, 2022.

Businesses primarily engaged in farming or ranching are not eligible for SBA disaster assistance. Agricultural enterprises should contact the Farm Services Agency about the U.S. Department of Agriculture assistance made available by the Secretary’s declaration. However, in drought disasters nurseries are eligible for SBA disaster assistance.

Applicants may apply online, receive additional disaster assistance information and download applications at <https://disasterloanassistance.sba.gov/>. Applicants may also call SBA’s Customer Service Center at (800) 659-2955 or email disastercustomerservice@sba.gov for more information on SBA disaster assistance.
